"IN DEFENSE OF THE ALIEN"

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The University of San Diego Law Institute, San Diego County Bar Association and Fronteras are sponsoring a two day national conference on Immigration Law and Practice. The conference entitled "In Defense of the Alien" will be held February 4 and 5 at the Royal Inn at the Wharf.

Donald T. Weckstein, Dean of USD School of Law, will deliver the opening remarks on Friday, February 4. The luncheon speaker on Friday is Maurice Roberts, Editor, "Interpreter Releases," a weekly up-dating publication to Immigration lawyers nationally. Roberts was formerly a member of the Immigration and Naturalization Court of Appeals, Washington. Opening remarks on Saturday, February 5 will be delivered by Judge Schwartz, Chief Judge, U.S. District Court, San Diego. For information and registration call USD Conference Center 291-6480, ext. 221.

The purpose of this conference is to provide practical information to practicing lawyers on how best to represent aliens accused of crimes and who may face deportation as a result of conviction. Specifically, legal techniques of proven effectiveness will be discussed by national and regional authorities reflecting recent statutory and decisional law and procedures in alien problems.

USD Law Institute, an affiliate entity of the University, was established in March 1976. Dean Weckstein is Chairman of the Board of Governors and Prof. Robert Simmons is the Director.

The Institute has two main purposes, to supervise and present programs and conferences for continuing legal education and community improvement; and to obtain and supervise grants for research projects involving the Law School and the community.
